

Constraints

- A constraint is a relationship which must be satisfied
 - For another relationship to be satisfied
- The denominator must not be 0 for the result of division to be defined