Predicates

- A relation implies a corresponding predicate that tests if a pair exists in the relation
  - If it is true, the relationship is satisfied or holds

- John is married to Jane
- Is John married to Jane?